Transfers Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows: June 9 by Mrs. Fanny A. Milligan to Daniel Dinger, for $7,000, the south half of lot 190 in Zaue's Island addition, on the east side of North Front street. June 10 by W. J. W. Cowden, trustee, to the Eagle Building Association, for $1,100, lot 1 of the subdivision of the Rachel Thornburgh estate, in Triadelphia district.

A Pole Felled Him.

Yesterday, afternoon on the South Side, William Pickett, an employee of the Wheeling Electrical Company, was chopping down a pole, when the pole unexpectedly broke and fell. Pickett was caught and thrown over a pile of dirt, and pinned down until released. He was taken to his home at 1505 Market street, where Dr. Baguley was summoned, but he was not seriously injured, only being somewhat bruised about the abdomen.

Hunting an Owner.

Yesterday Officer Fitzgerald arrested Harry Kennedy, a young fellow who celebrated his twenty-first birthday night before last, on a charge of stealing 225 pounds of brass journals, which he sold to a junk dealer named Martin, at Benwood. The man who rowed him and his brass to Benwood in a skiff was found, and the brass recovered, but the police searched all afternoon for the owner without finding him. It is thought to have been stolen from the old electric power house or from Lewis & Hazlett.

The Anderson-Hobson Suit.

The trial of the breach of promise case of Lida Anderson, of St. Clairsville, against Dr. Joseph A. Hobson, of Cleveland, will be called in the common pleas court at St. Clairsville this morning. Only three or four witnesses will be examined, but a large amount of documentary evidence in the form of letters that passed between the pair will be submitted. The lady in the case has possession of all the letters, the doctor having returned all she ever wrote to him, with a request that she return his, and it is stated the contract for marriage is contained in the letters. The only point in dispute is that the doctor in his answer says the engagement was broken last August by and with the consent of the fair plaintiff. This is disputed and is about the only point of contest. Many people yet believe a compromise will be effected before the trial of the case.

TWO DECISIONS RENDERED

By the Supreme Court of Appeals—Other Business.

Yesterday two decisions were rendered in interesting cases in the supreme court of appeals. In the case of the State vs. Hurr, convicted in Marion county of shooting the mayor of Monongah with intent to kill and sentenced to two years' confinement in the penitentiary, the decision of the lower court was affirmed. The opinion was delivered by Judge Holt.

In the case of the state vs. Flanagan, from Doddridge county, the decision of the court below was also affirmed. The case grew out of ordering whisky from a Parkersburg dealer to be delivered c. o. d. in Doddridge county. The court holds that the sale was in Parkersburg and not in Doddridge county.

In the case of Dulen vs. Jackson, an appeal was allowed; bond $300.

Ohio River Railroad Company vs. Clark, writ of error allowed; bond $1,000.

The following cases from the eleventh circuit, Judge Bennett, were submitted:

J. H. Vandora vs. County Court of Lewis county, appeal and supersedeas.

C. W. Watson et al. vs. J. H. Conrad et al., appeal and supersedeas, from Lewis county.

George J. Arnold vs. County Court of Lewis county, writ of error.

G. & P. Botkin vs. George J. Arnold, writ of error, from Braxton county.

TO REFORM POOR ORDERS.

The County Commissioners will Investigate Every Case.

At a special meeting of the county commissioners yesterday a resolution was offered by Mr. McGregor and adopted, reciting that the amount of poor orders exceed that of last year considerably, and providing for a committee of two commissioners for each district, who shall secure the names of all persons now receiving county aid, and make a careful investigation, reporting on the merits of each case. No commissioner is to act as committeeman for his own district.

Yesterday's meeting was especially to sit as a board of equalization and appeals. A number of petitions for reductions and corrections of assessments were acted on, but the only ones of any magnitude were those of the Bostwick Lath Company, whose assessment was reduced $2,850, and the Dollar Savings Bank, which was reduced $17,000 on state assessment and $15,320 on county.

The new toll house on the National road was authorized to be insured, and the clerk instructed to settle with Marshall county for her share of tolls from the Fairmont pike.

Ferdinand J. Wingerter was granted a certificate of good moral character to enable him to apply for admission to practice at the bar.

SPECIAL BARGAINS

CHILDREN'S SUITS

And Extra Pants!

Hot Weather Coats and Vests

IN SERGES, ALPACAS, MOHAIR, &C., AT POPULAR PRICES.

Suppose we should say Fifteen or Eighteen Dollars for one of the hundreds of Suits we are offering at TWELVE, nobody would think uncommon of it. The novelty of the price is startling. We've had hundreds of callers within the last few weeks prompted by mere curiosity—they told us so. They never dreamed that such a showing could be made. TWELVE DOLLARS for Suits that some of them were candid enough to tell us were as good as their tailor could make them for $25. They owned up they hadn't seen the like in any other store in town for less than $18, and they are not to be found. The more critical you are the stronger the light of superiority shines out, even down to the minutest point. They are tailored in a fashion that would do credit to any priced garments. Such fabrics and such patterns were never known to do duty at such a moderate cost before.

$12.

Tailors say ready-made clothes don't fit. We leave it to our TWELVE DOLLAR Grade if they don't, and not passably well, but perfectly. Good judgment never overpays. Don't let prejudice tug your purse strings wider open than need be for satisfaction. On some occasions you need the finest clothes that money will buy, we've got them, but at business and about town these TWELVE DOLLAR SUITS of ours are just what you want. When it's so plain to leave it's wasteful not to. You'd be the first to caution anybody against extravagance. How about practicing that preaching. Here's the time and opportunity. Pick the style. Here are all the styles, and of fashion the newest.
